

Programme on students' safety held

The Dr (Mrs) Erin N Nagarvala school had recently organized a programme on safety and security for students of standard IX and X. The programme focused on how students should react when they face unexpected situations. Farah Nesargi, a senior application development manager, addressed the students on how cellphones can help students in such situations without dialing or sending SMSs.